

Membership & Marketing Conference

Live from Baltimore!
It's the Best of the Alexandria Brown Bag

Your host: Talisa Thomas-Hall
Director of Membership and Affiliate Relations
National Association for College Admission Counseling

May 1, 2009, 8:15 a.m. - 9:15 a.m.

Connecting Great Ideas and Great People

Featuring...

- Scott Oser, President,
Scott Oser Associates, Inc.

- Erik Schonher, Vice President
Marketing General Inc.

- Kevin Whorton, Principal,
Whorton Marketing & Research

Today's Hot Topics:

Economy's Impact on Associations
Generational Engagement
Creative Marketing on Shoestring Budgets

#1: The Economy's Impact on Associations

- Facts
- Coping Strategies

The Economic Impact on Member Organizations

This is a Cultural Reality...
Adopt a mindset for doing more for less.

Scott Oser, Scott Oser Associates, Inc.

The Economic Impact on Member Organizations

This is not the Great Depression!?

*“During the Great Depression, a quarter of the working age population was out of a job.”
The Economist*

Membership Changes Seen, Past 6 Months

Magnitude of Impact on Associations

Increase
 About same
 Slight decrease
 Moderate decrease
 Significant decrease

Average change in bouncebacks due to unemployed, out of business: ↑ 13%

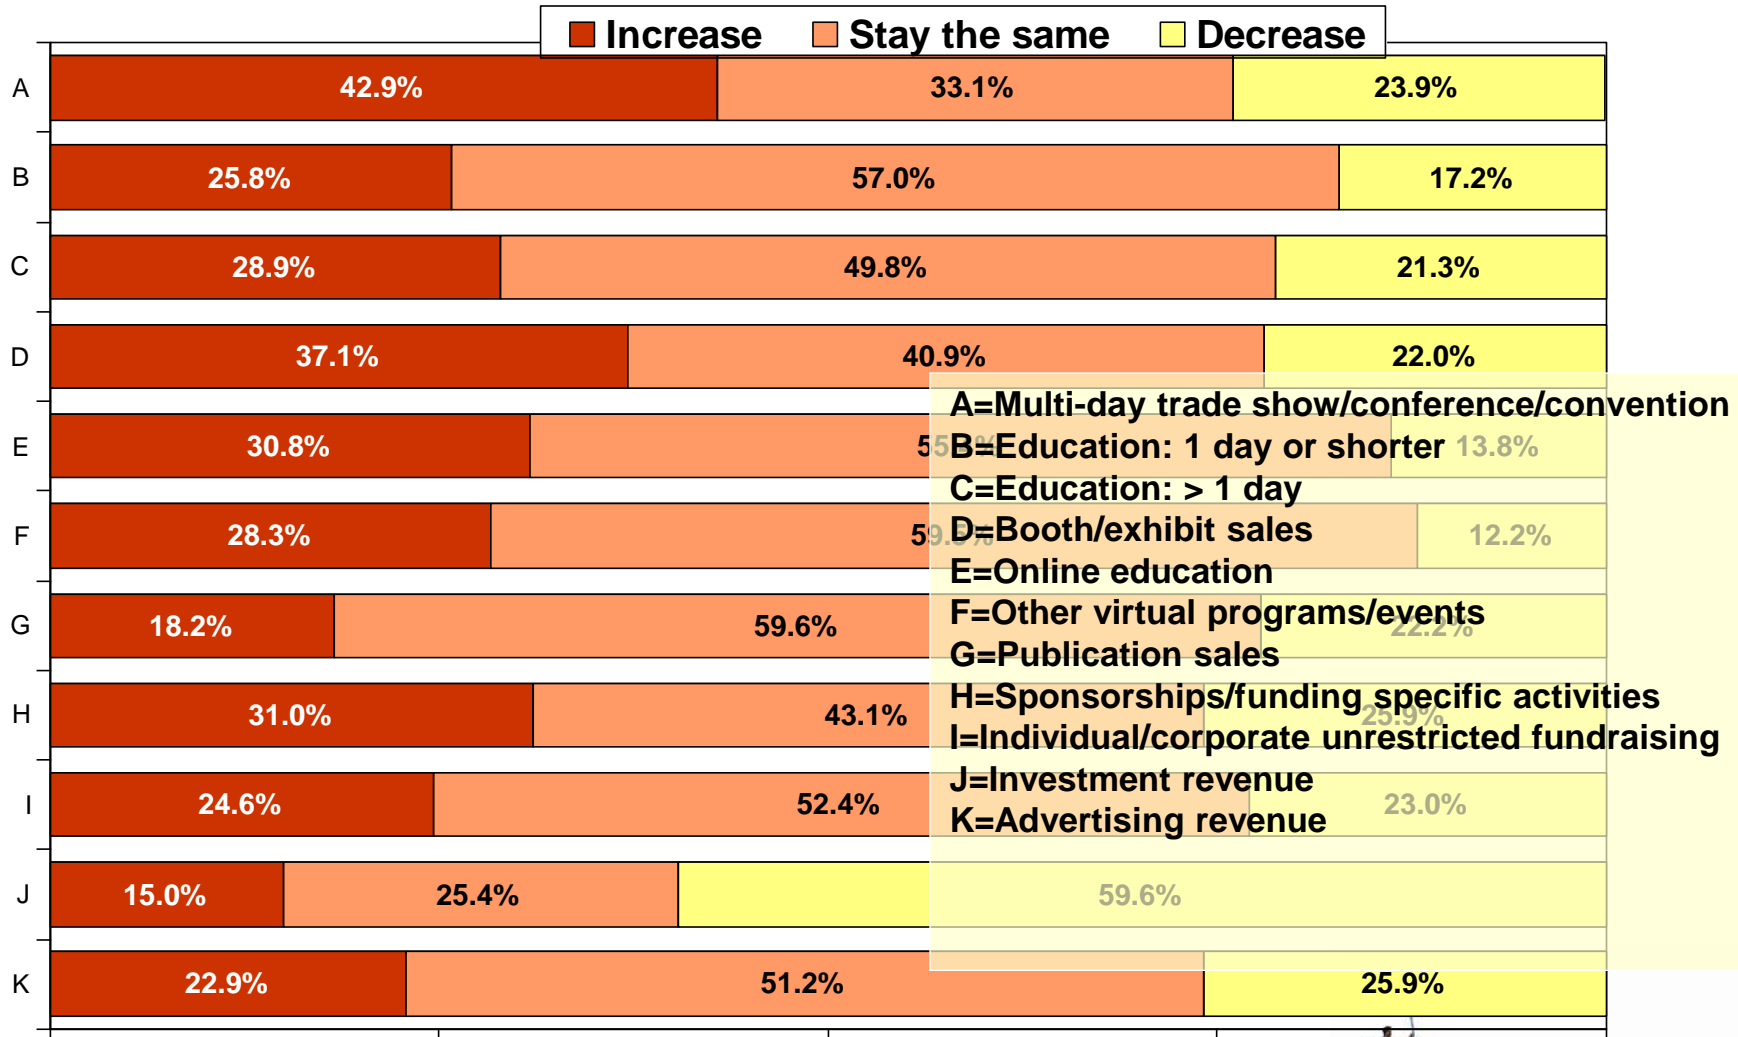

Average change in exit surveys referencing the economy: ↑ 38%

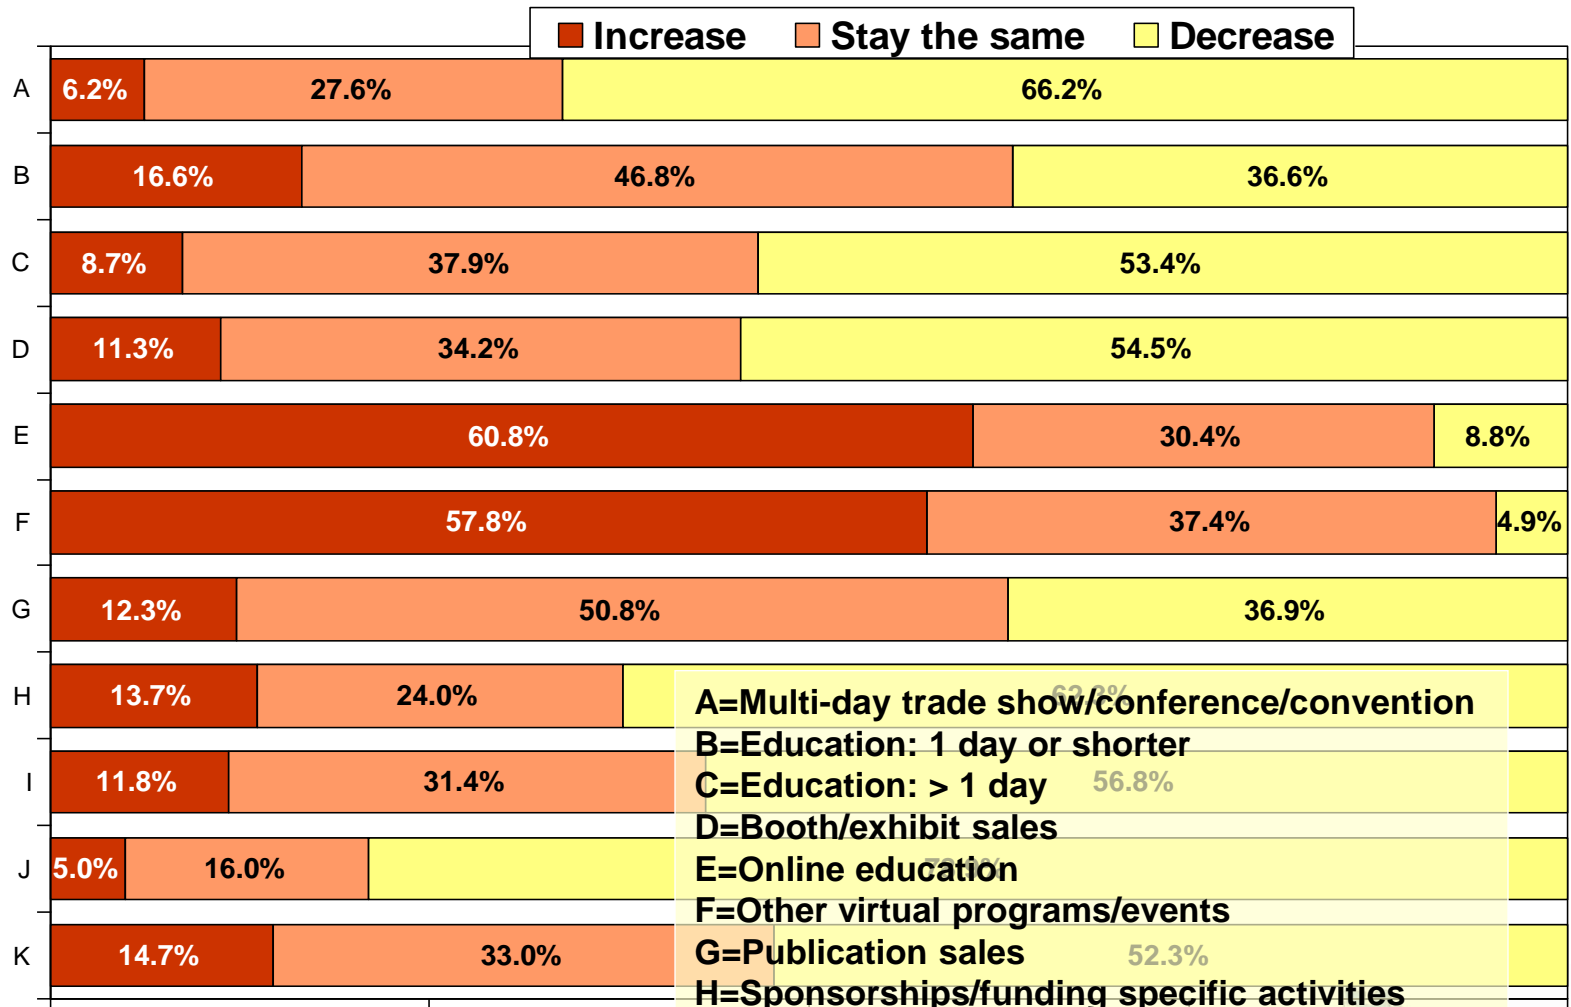

Plans/Actions: Positive Responses

ASAE: What's Changed in the Past Year

Expected Changes in Upcoming Year

A=Multi-day trade show/conference/convention
B=Education: 1 day or shorter
C=Education: > 1 day
D=Booth/exhibit sales
E=Online education
F=Other virtual programs/events
G=Publication sales
H=Sponsorships/funding specific activities
I=Individual/corporate unrestricted fundraising
J=Investment revenue
K=Advertising revenue

Anticipated Changes in Revenue

Impact you think the current economy will have on membership revenue in coming year

Results of ASAE economic survey: results to date (N=903)

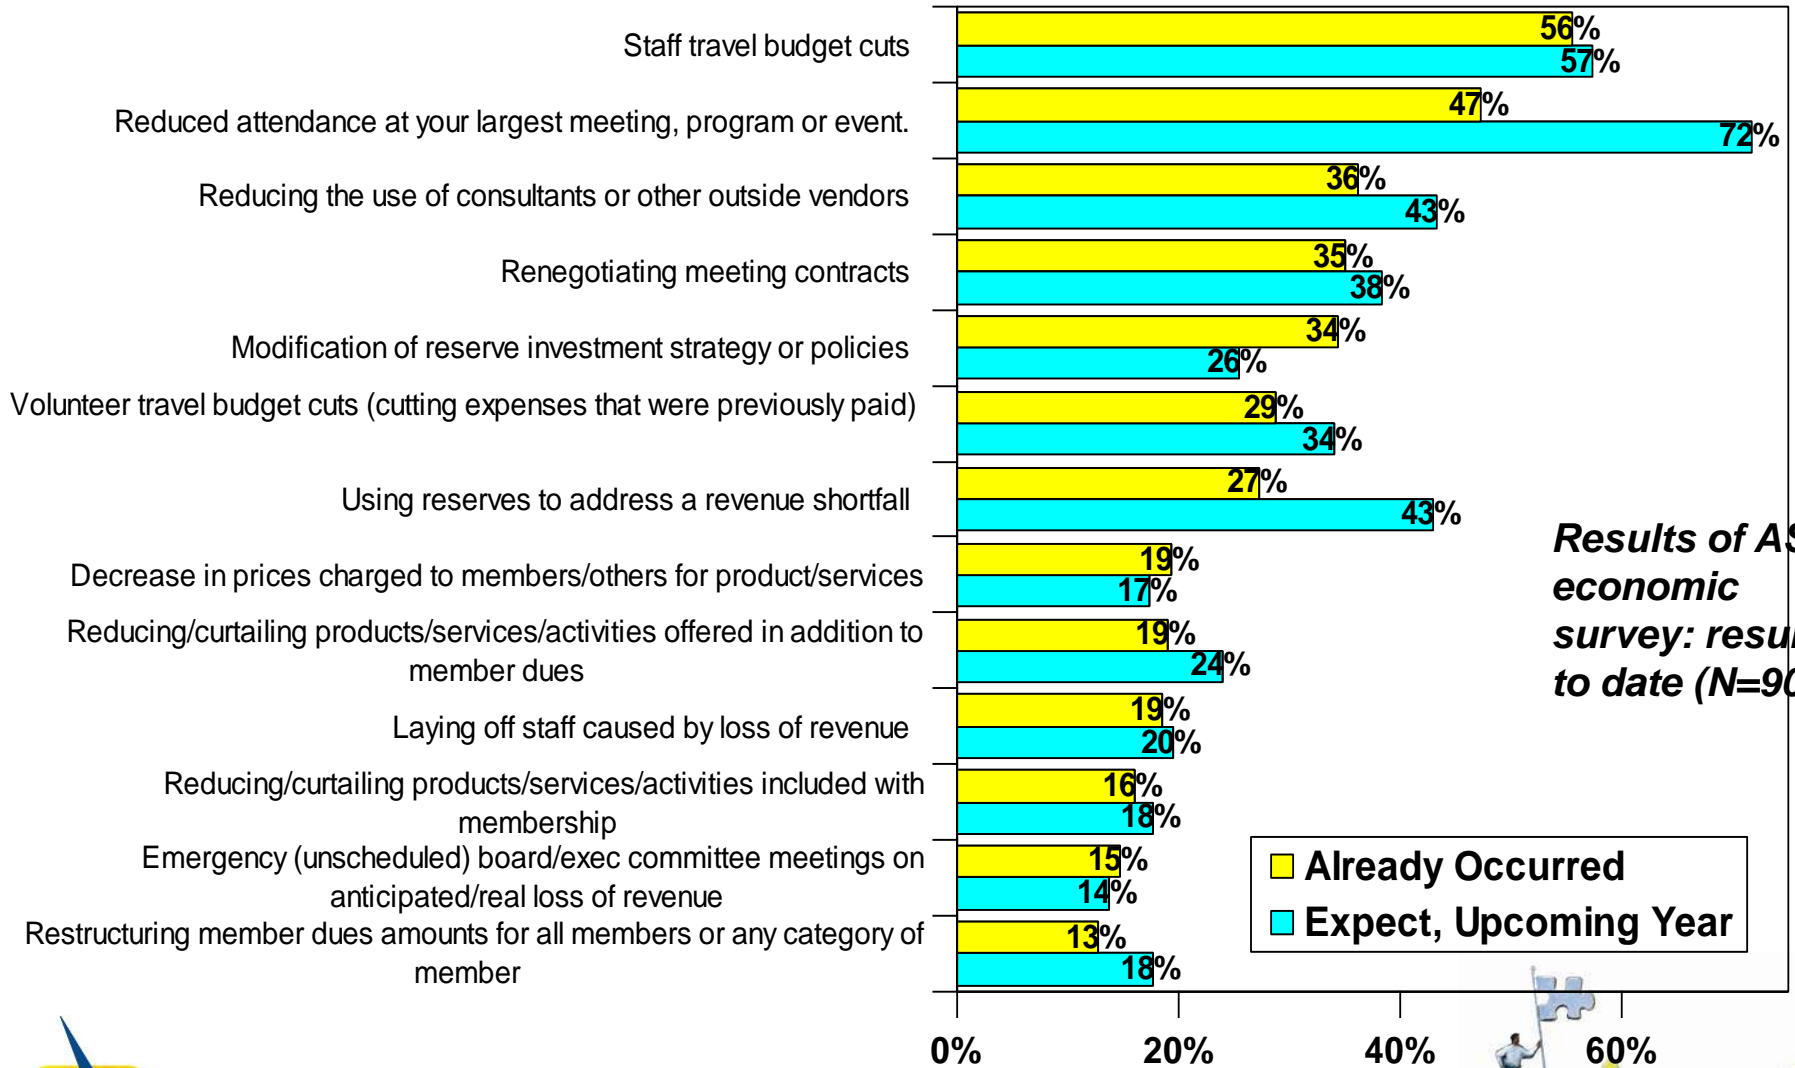

Anticipated change in total revenue compared to last year

Decrease 65%

Expect to Occur in Year Due to Economy

Results of ASAE economic survey: results to date (N=903)

■ Already Occurred
■ Expect, Upcoming Year

#2: Generational Engagement

Some of what we are seeing today reflects long-term, generational factors.

Or, “It’s Not Just the Economy, Stupid”
-Bill Clinton (paraphrased)

Generational Engagement

What are some key tips, challenges, and best practices to consider for engaging various generations of members?

Generational Engagement

Generational Motivators

“Volunteer Management: A New Way to Prosper,” Talisa Thomas-Hall, 2008

- Baby Boomers (1940 to 1960)
 - Clear Policies and Procedures
 - Security and Stability
 - Being Value added
 - Connection
- Generation X (1960 to 1980)
 - Being a part of the process
 - Independence
 - Promotion
 - Professional advancement
- Millennial (1980 to 2000)
 - Quick responses
 - Idea generating activities
 - Instant rewards
 - Information and training

Generational Engagement

How does technology play a role in engaging members from different generations?

#3: Creative Marketing on a Shoestring Budget

The GOOD News...

Members look to their associations more in times of economic uncertainties.

“Ten Tips for Membership Marketing in a Recession”

Erik Schonher, MGI

Creative Marketing on a Shoestring Budget

What's working out there?

What's being done or what's changed to effectively boost acquisition and retention?

Creative Marketing on a Shoestring Budget

“Most Americans sort their mail over the trash can...”

“Creative Marketing on a Shoestring Budget”
Raylene H. Kershaw, Marketing General Inc.

Closing Marketing Tips, Answers from the Experts

Credits...

Host:

Talisa Thomas-Hall

Alexandria Brown Bag Founder & Facilitator

Director of Membership and Affiliate Relations

National Association for College Admission Counseling

Phone: 703-299-6837

E-mail: tthomashall@nacacnet.org

Website: www.theCEOnet.com

Join the Alexandria Brown Bag LinkedIn Group

<http://www.linkedin.com/groupRegistration?gid=1479397>

Connecting Great Ideas and Great People

Star Panelists

Scott Oser, President, Scott Oser Associates, Inc.
scott@scottoserassociates.com www.scottoserassociates.com

Erik Schonher, Vice President, Marketing General Inc.
eschonher@MarketingGeneral.com www.MarketingGeneral.com

Kevin Whorton, Principal
Whorton Marketing & Research
kwhorton@comcast.net
www.kwhorton.com

Connecting Great Ideas and Great People

Special Guest Stars

Alexandria Brown Bag co-Facilitator:
Cheryl Rothbart, Sr. Director of Membership & Administration
American Society of Consultant Pharmacists

Announcer:
Ingrid Thomas, Marketing & Communications Manager
International & American Associations for Dental Research

Guest Contributor:
Raylene H. Kershaw, Sr. Vice President & COO
Marketing General Inc.

Thank You!

Connecting Great Ideas and Great People